Code of Conduct

1. Respectful Behavior

All members shall, at all times and places:

- a. Treat fellow members, players, officials, other teams, spectators, and the general community in a positive, sportsmanlike, and respectful manner; and
  - b. Support fellow members
- ### 2. Misconduct

a. Physical

No member shall, at any time or place:

- i. Strike, shove, jostle, lay hand upon, or threaten to strike an official, player, or spectator; or
  - ii. Use unnecessary rough tactics during the course of a game.
- #### b. Verbal and Visual

No member shall, at any time or place:

- i. Engage in an abusive, verbal attack upon any official, player, team or spectator;
  - ii. Use profane, obscene, or vulgar language, under any circumstances;
  - iii. Engage in an objectionable demonstration of dissent, unsportsmanlike conduct, or any other forceful action that might be considered obscene; or
  - iv. Question or dispute the decision of an official unless acting as the designated team captain or coach.
- #### c. General

No member shall, at any time:

- i. Refuse to abide by an official's decision;
- ii. Appear in or around the field or stadium under the influence of alcohol or drugs; or
- iii. Consume alcoholic beverages while the team is participating in a game.

3. Enforcement

a. Jurisdiction

The code of conduct committee, consisting of one (1) member of the leadership board and two (2) non-leadership board members, all in good standing, shall have jurisdiction over the enforcement of the Code of Conduct, to include investigating violations and issuing punishments within the Phoenix Hellraisers organization.

b. Issuance of Punishment

When a member has been determined to be in violation of the Code of Conduct, the code of conduct committee shall be responsible for issuing a prompt and reasonable punishment.

Punishment may include, but is not limited to, suspension from games or other club events or revocation of membership, depending on the degree of the violation and the history of the member within the club.
